"With its rose-pink color, red-apple fruit and spice, this tastes like a fresh red wine, its cool clarity enhanced by the pincushion of bubbles that tingle as the mineral flavors dive down through your mouth."

"White peaches, lemons, raw hazelnuts and lightly salted butter. Saline and tangy, but also sleek on the palate, with just-ripe white fruit flavors and soft bubbles. Chardonnay from Coteaux Sud d'Eprenay. Base is 2021 with 50% reserve wines. Disgorged October 2024. Drink now"

"One of the finest sauvignon blancs produced in Napa from the 2024 vintage. Mineral- and citrus-driven with aromas of wet stone, lemon peel, flint, grapefruit and blackberry bush. The palate is tightly wound, with focus and high tension. A nod to Pessac."

"From sustainable vineyards in the Wairau Valley, this family-owned wine brand offers New Zealand fruit - citrus and mango but comes off with a French accent. Bone dry acidity, with tension and a mineral base reminds us of a Sancerre. Complex and clean, it certainly over-delivers for the price."
